In fact, QlikView enables access to operational data in real time, offers data analysis across all business lines and for all types of users, either on-site, in the cloud or from a laptop, a mobile phone or a tablet. The goal is to bring meaningful, value-added answers to the Business* », comments Jean-Marc Toussaint, Managing Partner at Velixis.

The added value of this partnership is illustrated by their recent common signing with the Doosan Group, one of the European leaders in design, manufacture and marketing of compact and heavy worksite machines.
